For immediate release

NIFFF 2022 : THE NIFFF SPRING

Before its 21st edition takes place in Neuchâtel from July 1st to July 9th, 2022, the NIFFF (Neuchâtel International Fantastic Film Festival) will swing by Lausanne during Sustainability Week and by Plan-les-Ouates for Fantastic Wednesdays. Offered in collaboration with Unipoly and the town of Plan-les-Ouates, this programme puts the highlight on horror cinema - dystopia, vampires, and vertiginous romances.

A SWISS CLIMATE DISTOPIA FOR SUSTAINABILITY WEEK

In collaboration with Unipoly - Saturday, March 12th, 6:30 p.m, Salle Polydome (EPFL), free entry

Two award winner at the NIFFF 2021, TIDES from Swiss director Tim Fehlbaum is an ambitious and impressive science fiction story in which a natural disaster plays a major role. A coherent take on the genre aligned with the awareness objectives of Sustainability Week. Don't miss out!

FANTASTIC WEDNESDAYS AT LA JULIENNE

From the town of Plan-les-Ouates

WHAT WE DO IN THE SHADOWS (Jemaine Clement & Taika Waititi, NZ, 2014) - Wednesday, March 16th, 8 p.m. - Salle de La Julienne, free entry

If you've never seen Taika Waititi and Jemaine Clement's hilarious vampire comedy, it's time to remedy that! Selected as part of the international competition and chosen for the audience award at the NIFFF 2014, WHAT WE DO IN THE SHADOWS is a mockumentary inhabited by memorable characters.

JUMBO (Zoé Wittcock, FR/BE/LU, 2020) - Wednesday, April 13th, 8 p.m. - Salle de La Julienne, free entry

Shown at the NIFFF Special Edition in 2020, JUMBO is the first feature film from Belgian filmmaker Zoé Wittcock. In a whirlwind of neon lights, poesy, and emotions, Jeanne meets her other half Jumbo, the new ride of the amusement park she works at.

JOIN THE AANIFFF (FRIENDS OF THE NIFFF)

Created in 2003, the AANIFFF supports and favours the activities of the NIFFF through the commitment and contributions of its members. The NIFFF is an unmissable cultural yearly event, so if you like fantasy films, consider joining the NIFFF Friends Association!
